MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: IC Staff Seminar for New Foreign Service Officers

25X1 1. On 26 November [redacted] and I conducted a presentation/seminar for the 116th Basic Course for Foreign Service Officers at the Foreign Service Institute. [redacted] had made arrangements for this FSI session but, of course, was unable to participate because of his current illness. It was our objective to have State, CIA and Defense representation.

25X1 2. The group was similar to previous audiences consisting of approximately 35 FSOs in their second week of training. Again [redacted] led off with the discussion stimulus highlighting national needs, the DCI's role, the IC Staff effort and the Foreign Service role and relationship to all these. The Foreign Service Officer's personal role was emphasized.

25X1 3. The discussion period was relaxed and productive. The students expressed greatest interest in their personal relationships to Washington analysts [redacted]

[redacted] The students appeared interested and anxious to do what is desired.

Comment: The routine with the FSI Basic Course for Foreign Service Officers seems fairly well established. Clearly it is a worthwhile effort which will produce positive results even though these gains may never be measurable.
